Jonah,

Good luck to you, I know you will be pleased. I am on my third order with / rate on any leads I have ever purchased. Just tonight, I had 2 applications pounding for 2 weeks. Sometimes persistence is the key with them. They g need to make your message different and better than everyone else.

Ive ordered from Stephen , I dont know, three times myself I think and refi him cause his leads are that good. I rarely recommend anything cause peo they dont have success. Ive spent more money on Stephens leads this year year last year just about on advertising.

I gave Stephen a hard time a little this time around on my purchase cause happened but he is a class act. Ive never had anyone in the face of one cor polite and bend over backwards to make the order right. I had to post this.

If anyone is on the fence about orderig DONT BE. You can not lose money (brain dead or just a terrible salesperson. Ive ordered stuff from other Outpr anywhere near satisfied. Ive more than made my investment back many , i give him Kudos on here for all to see. I always tell him, he is an example of Thanks for everything Stephen and for being so great to do business with. Thank you guys, I really think it has a lot to do with coming from an LO's perspective and preaching daily...I can so easily place myself back on the other end of the phone because it was only a year and a half ago, and always try to give what I would expect could happen as there are no guarantees in any of this...

This is another reason I have to do straight business, I can't afford bad karma if I screwed instead of if the shiny side is still up inside of a cloud!...

Gotcha, I think enough post to be contacted, I do ask...It's like always, son don't...

We are working with all of our clients trying to help them make each deal, if someone, there is usually something we can do with them today, we just help loan sometimes, but it still pays THEM!...

I have heard from many clients recently, more than before, that are holding trying to either help them build their credit up to where they can help them delay some fundings for sure...

And I noticed a trend of targeting farther out than they have been over the are going 3-4 months out now to get to the people first!...Those with FHA loans also!...

Stephen sounds like an OK guy, however if anyone is purchasing lists make sure they are these true ARMs or are there HELOCs mixed in also? Also make sure they have some free samples to see the quality of the leads. Ask me how I know this. When I asked for ARMs that reset on certain dates, I was told that they can only have some variable rates but most of those will be ARMs. What I got was 80% HELOCs

I will give an update on my first order of leads from Stephen. Purchased 40 the mailer alone. 4 more applications on the first telephone call, and I still have 17 future clients. I will close the first loan on Monday. I have appraisals ordered to work on the 6 others due to credit and value. Great investment.

I am now eager to jump in and get started. until now, I too have been very scattered in my approach. I hope anyone TRULY listened and I pray every newbie on this forum has. You've just laid the foundation as well as for continual success in the future. Also, anyone visiting this forum for the first time see you have built a excellent reputation for yourself and is trusted and well liked. Thank you for your service. You will definitely be hearing from me and I plan to use your services and all L.O.'s I encounter. Again, thankyou for sharing your wisdom and operating you with the upmost integrity.

Thank you very much for the kind words!...

If you're new, and not so new manybe, unless people are walking thru your door you WILL be playing the numbers game..Whether it's via relitters, builders, FTH door knocking, leads or dialing for dollars, it's all a matter of talking to enough prospects to get enough deals...So that being said, how do we increase our odds? I want to emphasize, although it's called a game, this is a very serious game for your future and now the quickly approaching Xmaskwanzukah season is approaching.

An oh so shameless self-promotion: People in ARMs would LOVE for you to be successful. The more joyous, they HAVE to do something, most CAN'T afford to say, "call me later" could be too late..You can tell the Jan 1st recasting borrowers they can speak to you if you do it right!...promo off

Back to increasing our odds...Basically there is one huge list of every home address and you get parts of it from various places and some parts from many places...Now group as best we can to end up with the most targetted group we possibly and smarter, not longer and harder...

In my humble opinion, I feel that the one greatest factor that weeds out the whether someone has a "need" or not...I don't think I need to get into why that you KNOW "needs" you compared to someone that first, has to give you second, gives you enough time to discover a need(like using title data or a get people on the phone, that edge alone is bigtime!...

Now, who needs you?...I'm gonna be selfish here and say I can only think of those that have the fewest choices in regard to their current mortgage(since we're talking about ARMs...If others want to add other groups that "need" you, all the better, I just want the least resistance and I feel the ARM market offers that more than ANY other market...I'm not saying it's the only market, I just think it offers the most "need" for you to do you think you can make more money on average off someone that "needs" you than someone that has nothing driving them emotionally?...

We can then take that group of people and filter as best we can hopefully get the best odds for success and when you want to win, we want the best odds!...

The next thing I want to add for newbies is if you're going to dial, don't waste your time read on the outpost that "my phone just isn't ringing"?...I bet if you asked someone to call them, if they're honest, they'll say not many...How can you expect someone to call you if you didn't tell anyone to call you?...When I spend my time dialing, and my time maximizing it...If I get a machine, I leave a message, everytime I call that someone answers...I will do that until they buy or die, that's my job and I paid for it...

Using dialers and only talking to those that answer will not cause the phone to ring...we are using a dialer, because our list is so broad we need that many to increase our odds...Again, not along the shorter and smarter line, IMHO...I have read where someone leaves a message of numbers in a day, if they left hundreds of messages, the law of average says they will get a call...

Back to the ARMs and how messages even add to the already higher odds...I just want the opportunity to know so much about them, it actually makes some mad and how you got their info!...LOL...I've posted this many times before, but know how to get info and doing the calcs ahead of time, I can leave a very detailed PERSONAL (not BS) message that gets attention....It goes:

This is Steve from the mortgage company calling in regard to your mortgage on December 1st, it looks like a $453 a month increase in your payment(calculated using a very generic formula), call me at xxx-xxx-xxxx to discuss ways to avoid the mortgage company>> at xxx-xxx-xxxx...

I mention the company name at the end to be compliant and how many times they hang up as soon as they hear, "Hi, this is steve at ABC mortgage... click... you only get so much of their time, you have to earn the rest and if you can leave a totally pertinent message, they won't listen...

Regardless of where you get your info, some of these techniques can still a work... odds!...

If one has a small list of homeowners in ARMS set to reset in 30 to 90 days call them or should you send a mailer first. My fear is that if I send the mailer I should contact a bank before the time has passed for you to followup. The post I read am changing my focus as far as using my dialer. I will manually call the list but as you stated, there is a need. Thanks Stephan, people like you are true to your word. There are others on here that are also great benefits and but you know who you are.

ALWAYS call right away, mail when you can...If they don't have your mailer they "can't see the light", maybe they will allow a follow up call once they read say, "if you read the letter and still don't want my help, just say no, you say the second time!" :-) (and I do say that)

On a more serious note, there are 3 types of people; auditory, visual and kinesthetic. If we throw at them...How do we get around that?...Well, if I get to serve up a letter, I make sure they have a piece of paper and pencil/pen, if they write down they can "See" what I'm saying! :-) Even when you don't have a mailer going to them alone will close more deals!...

We order leads from this source and had ZERO success. Over 35% of the n ever answer, but they did ring so I guess they are good numbers. I am sure but I am closing 28% of the live transfer I take so I do know how to close a bucks.

Are you still selling leads for Georgia? I sent you a couple referrals in Georgia you are no longer doing business in Georgia.
